

Carnivorous Plants Word Scramble

Some plants grow where the soil is poor in nutrients or little soil is available. Carnivorous plants have adapted to this lack of nutrients from the soil by trapping insects and other small animals. The plants produce enzymes that break down the bodies of their prey and absorb the nutrients they need to grow.

When you visit the Mitchell Park Domes, make sure you stop in the lobby and check out the Carnivorous Plants Terrarium and see our live plants!

tVFup ernysal      ----- nePPral thcit      ----- deWloBr tadr      ----- wunSed      ----- rrutoBettw      ----- ukMyCp one      -----