

Virtual Tours and Other Earth Day Resources

Here are links to websites mentioned in the Spring 2021 FOD Newsletter Article "Let's Reclaim Earth Day!"

Note: These links all worked as of February 12, 2021. We are not affiliated with any of these sites, and can't guarantee they will be maintained.

Virtual Tours

Discover Wisconsin YouTube Channel

Get comfortable! Once you start watching these Discover Wisconsin videos, you'll find it hard to turn them off! Many great topics, high quality production.

<https://www.youtube.com/discoverwi>

Travel Wisconsin Page with Links to Tours

From Outdoor Recreation to Museums, this amazing page has dozens of links to great videos and virtual tours, all set in Wisconsin:

<https://www.travelwisconsin.com/article/things-to-do/bring-wisconsin-to-you-with-these-virtual-experiences>

Earth Day Ideas

Earth Month Tips from the Urban Ecology Center

This is a link to a PDF from the Urban Ecology Center in Milwaukee with 30 ideas for changes that you can make that would have a real impact:

https://urbanecologycenter.org/images/pdf/MKE_EarthMonth_Tips_web.pdf

The Official Earth Day Site

<https://www.earthday.org>

Researching History

The Wisconsin Historical Site

Thousands of interesting articles and photos on all topics Wisconsin history, including Native Americans, Aldo Leopold, John Muir, and Gaylord Nelson.

<https://www.wisconsinhistory.org/>

More about Earth Day and Gaylord Nelson

<http://www.nelsonearthday.net/index.php>

Wisconsin Historical Society information about Gaylord Nelson

<https://www.wisconsinhistory.org/Records/Article/CS536>